

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION PROGRAM
COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE, ENVIRONMENT AND
NUTRITION SCIENCES

Selma Field Day

April 29, 2017
 431 County Road 540, Selma, AL

Agenda

| Program Schedule |  | Resource Person  |
|------------------|--|--|
| 9:00 AM          | Registration   | Yubaraj Karki, Tuskegee University                             |
| 9:15 AM          | Legume and grass combination for year-round pastures   | Uma Karki, Tuskegee University                                 |
| 9:45 AM          | Woodland grazing   | Uma Karki, Tuskegee University                                 |
| 10:15 AM         | NRCS support for pasture improvement and grazing management  | Buddy Wilburn, NRCS Selma Field Office                         |
| 10:45 AM         | Does the extended grazing and diversification make economic sense?   | Lila Karki, Tuskegee University                                |
| 11:15 AM         | WORKING LUNCH  | Yubaraj and the team   |
| 12:00 PM         | Field visit and hands-on: collect and composite soil samples, identify different forages, measure the forage height and calculate the available biomass, tour the site, observe planting equipment, fencing, and facilities (shelter, watering, and feeding), working on goats – hoof trimming, FAMACHA, body condition score, age estimation, beekeeping demo and tasting raw honey | Gregory Scott, Yubaraj Karki, Uma Karki, and other team member |
| 1:45 PM          | Discussion, feedback, and evaluation session   | Team   |
| 2:00 PM          | Adjourn  |  |

---

The Tuskegee University Cooperative Extension Program offers educational programs to persons regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, veteran status, or disability and is an equal opportunity employer.