Dear all:

With immense pleasure, CAENS, Cooperative Extension, Skegee Money Smart (SM$) is organizing a SM$ Poster Contest. The theme of the poster contest is “Impact of Coin Banks on Developing a Savings Habit toward Financial Security.” The major objective of the event is to promote students’ saving habit paying for college education and financial security in the future. The SM$ initiative intends to work with all of you and your designated clubs/groups/associations to provide an opportunity for talented collegiate youths to showcase their wonderful ideas on creating viable money saving plans. The first, second, and third place winners of the contest will receive, respectively, $250, $150, and $100, in prize money, along with a medal, and an appreciation certificate. The contest will be organized as stated below.

Where: Mary Starke Harper Hall, Room #102
When: Thursday, October 26, 2017
Time: 3:00 p.m.

Guidelines for preparing a poster:
• Introduction to the topic
• Implication of the coin/piggy bank on developing a savings habit
• Methods/Approaches that you apply to deposit coins/bills in your coin bank
• Anticipated findings/results
• Discussions: Your experience, plan, and strategy to promote a savings habit for financial security
• Conclusions
• Literature cited, if any
• Keywords: 3-5 to summarize your poster/thought

Deadline to submit your electronic poster: No later than Monday, October 23, 2017. We will print the poster for you. We request all of you to spread the word out to encourage students to take advantage of this opportunity. To register in the event, please email Dr. Lila Karki lkarki@mytu.tuskegee.edu

The Tuskegee University Cooperative Extension Program offers educational programs to persons regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, veteran status, or disability and is an equal opportunity employer.