GUEST SPEAKER

MELONIE D. PARKER

*Corporate Pioneer
Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer
Google, Inc.*

Award-winning corporate leader Melonie D. Parker is the Global Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer of Google, Inc. Ms. Parker’s career has spanned more than three decades during which she has delivered measurable impact and equitable outcomes for communities across the globe.

Known for coining the mantra, “we exist to close gaps,” Ms. Parker has served as a pioneer for legions of women in corporate environments with a deep commitment to advancing internal and external engagement strategies with a proven blueprint for more inclusive and accessible companies where everyone belongs. Ms. Parker is an innovative C-suite thought leader who is passionate about people and organizations that remain true to making a substantive impact.

As the driver of Google’s commitment to addressing the tech industry’s lack of diversity in its workforce as well as amongst emerging entrepreneurs, Parker works with academic institutions and aspiring business leaders to help build pathways and expand the pipeline to tech. She also partners with institutions and organizations to spearhead trailblazing research. Her proudest achievement is the development and ongoing execution of Google’s racial equity commitments which are focused on building sustainable equity, both internally and externally.

Prior to Google, Parker served as the Vice President of Human Resources & Communications at Sandia National Laboratories where she oversaw human resources, health benefits, and employee services. The first black woman to serve in the role, she was also responsible for Sandia’s communications efforts which included strategic planning, executive communications, media relations, external branding, community affairs, and internal communications. Parker held a variety of progressive leadership roles over a 17-year period at Lockheed Martin and during her time there, she managed employee relations, staffing, diversity programs, compensation and benefits packages, and K-12 outreach initiatives. She is also a graduate of Lockheed Martin’s Executive Assessment & Development Program—a rare accomplishment for women of color and human resources professionals. Parker also serves on the Board of Directors for Thurgood Marshall College Fund.

Parker received a B.A. in Mass Communications from Hampton University and an M.A. in Human Resources from Villanova University. Sustainability Magazine named Parker as one of the Top 10 Diversity Leaders in 2024 and she was recognized by the Root 100 as one of 2023’s most influential Black Americans. Named to Savoy Magazine’s 2023 Most Influential Executives in Diversity & Inclusion for the second year in a row, recognized by the Hampton University Alumni Association, nominated as a Corporate Catalyst on AfroTech’s Future 50 List for 2023 and presented with a Sisters with Superpowers award presented by Rolling Out UrbanStyle Weekly, Parker was named HR Professional of the Year in 2016 by the New Mexico Society of Human Resource Management and in 2014, she was recognized with a Special Recognition Award at the Women of Color STEM Awards.

2023-24 HONOR ROLL

In recognition of academic excellence and for the promotion and encouragement of scholarly work, there will be published during the fall semester an Annual Honor Roll based upon the work of the preceding school year.

To be eligible, a student must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 ("C" average), a grade point average of no less than 3.25 for the academic year during which his/her eligibility is determined, and have passed at least 12 semester hours each semester.

2023-24 EMINENT SCHOLARS

Students who maintain a grade point average of 4.00 qualify as Eminent Scholars. If fewer than three students have a cumulative grade point average of 4.00, then the three students achieving the highest cumulative grade point average will be selected. All Eminent Scholars must also qualify for the Annual Honor Roll.

The Tuskegee Song

Tuskegee, thou pride of the swift growing South
We pay thee our homage today
For the worth of thy teaching, the joy of thy care;
And the good we have known 'neath thy sway.
Oh, long-striving mother of diligent sons
And of daughters whose strength is their pride,
We will love thee forever and ever shall walk
Thro' the oncoming years at thy side.

Thy Hand we have held up the difficult steeps,
When painful and slow was the pace,
And onward and upward we've labored with thee
For the glory of God and our race.
The fields smile to greet us, the forests are glad,
The ring of the anvil and hoe
Have a music as thrilling and sweet as a harp
Which thou taught us to hear and to know.

Oh, mother Tuskegee, thou shinest today
As a gem in the fairest of lands;
Thou gavest the Heav'n-blessed power to see
The worth of our minds and our hands.
We thank thee, we bless thee, we pray for thee years
Imploring with grateful accord,
Full fruit for thy striving, time longer to strive,
Sweet love and true labor's reward.
