2018 Black History Month
Celebration

“African Americans During A Time of War”
Lecture Series In Honor of Frank L. Toland, Professor Emeritus, History

Sponsored by
Tuskegee University Archives
Department of History and Political Science, CAS
Tuskegee University National Center of Bioethics in Research and Healthcare

Thursday, February 1, 11:00 a.m., Kwesi Daniels
Paris Exposition and Tuskegee

Tuesday, February 6, 11:00 a.m., Vester Marable
The Tuskegee Airmen National Park Site

Wednesday, February 7, 11:00 a.m., Lisa Bratton and Elyse Hill
Introduction to African-American Genealogy

Thursday, February 8, 11:00 a.m., Sumpter Winbush
African American Veterans

Tuesday, February 13, 11:00 a.m.
Roundtable Discussion on Tuskegee Airmen

Thursday, February 15, 11:00 a.m.
Tuskegee University History Symposium
Beauty and Burden of Blackness

Friday, February 16, 11:00 a.m.
Tuskegee University History Symposium
Beauty and Burden of Blackness
Location: George Washington Carver Museum

Tuesday, February 20, 11:00 a.m., David Banks
Roots: The Spiritual and Personal Journeys

Thursday, February 22, 11:00 a.m.
Panel Discussion on the Legacy of President Obama

Friday, February 23, 11:00 a.m.
Art Competition

Tuesday, February 27, 11:00 a.m., Tim Bryant
Tuskegee and Macon County During Time of War

Tuesday, February 27, 1:00 p.m., Rip Patton
An Afternoon with a Freedom Rider

Wednesday, February 28, 11:00 a.m., Tuskegee University Libraries
Post World War II and the Negro Soldier

All lectures are located in the John A. Kenney Hall Bioethics Auditorium, RM 71-243, unless otherwise noted.