Tuskegee University Intramurals & Recreation
Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct shall serve as a standard for how individuals are expected to behave when participating in T.U. Intramural and Recreation Programs. Students, faculty and staff assume an obligation to conduct themselves according to the University Code of Conduct and in a manner compatible with the university's function as an educational institution of higher learning. When involved in an event sponsored or endorsed by Tuskegee University Intramural and Recreation Department, the participant indicates, by his or her registration in the event, he/she agrees to represent his/her self, team and the university in a way that does not detract from the reputation of the institution and to act morally and display sportsmanship-like behavior, before, during and after any activity and/or competition. Guidelines of conduct include, but are not limited to, the examples outlined below.

Participants shall not:
• Use drugs, except for medical purposes, while traveling, competing, socializing and/or using facilities including lodging spaces;
• Consume alcohol while traveling, competing or spectating;
• Attend any part of the tournament while intoxicated;
• Strike, attempt to strike or otherwise physically abuse any individual;
• Intentionally engage in or incite participants and/or spectators to engage in abusive or violent conduct;
• Use verbal or non-verbal profanity, disrespectful language, obscene gestures or behavior;
• Violate any rules or policies of Event/Program, Event/Program Host, Hotels, Facilities, and/or city, state or governmental entities.

Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in:
• Suspension from the activity or game;
• Forfeiture of any individual or team awards;
• Ejection/Removal from the property, site or venue of the event;
• Forfeiture of game and possible individual/team elimination from current and future events;
• Liability for all monetary damages arising from, or caused by, a participant's conduct while participating in, and attending, a program or event.
• Notification to University officials for any violation of the Code of Conduct by an individual or team.
