Booker T. Washington Leadership Institute Speaker Series

Presents: Dr. Joseph T. Isaac

April 6, 2022

1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

“ACADEMIC STRATEGY”

Dr. Joseph T. Isaac is vice president for the Schools of Graduate and Professional Studies at Cuttington University. He has more than 30 years track record in corporate and higher education leadership. His topic is "Academic Strategy", as it relates to higher education planning. Through conversation and discussion, he hopes to draw a straight line between strategy and leadership, connecting the vision and mission to outcomes. This is a discussion for the entire university community. He holds a Doctor of Education degree in higher education leadership from Morgan State University, whence he earned a Master of Science in city & regional planning. His undergraduate education includes a Bachelor of Science in construction engineering. Dr. Isaac is the author of the book "The 5 Laws of Strategic Planning a Handbook for College and University Strategy".
